Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I have been keenly interested in the work of all the "Critics" of the JFK assassination for almost 10 years. In this period of time I have managed to accumulate my own little library of these works and other memorabilia.

Up until recently I thought I had just about everything that could possibly be available to me. That is, until I read "Frameup." Somehow or another I missed two of your writings — Post-Mortem and Post-Mortem II.

I would be grateful if you could advise me as to whether there are any editions still available and, if so, where and how I could acquire them.

Respectfully,

P.S. I just hope and pray you and others like you will never give up! I firmly believe that some day we will know the truth.
